

The Official Golden Hearts Dance Krewe

New Orleans Hottest Teen Dance Group

Passion Dance Center has much STAR POWER and represents professional dancers from the City of New Orleans. Golden Hearts Dance Krewe is the official professional dance group at Passion Dance Center that performs and competes. These teens perform hip hop, jazz and buck dance. They are trained in ballet, jazz, hip hop, contemporary and more by Passion Dance Center's accredited teaching staff. Director Tamika Jett, Headcoach Dawne Moffett, and coaches Keah and Kel are leaders of the Golden Hearts. The Golden Hearts have performed on BETs 365 Black Awards and Essence Music Festival. Done the TLC Award show. Danced in Beyonce's HBO film, Lemonade. Was called out by Missy Elliott to do choreography to her song, Pep Rally. Featured danced on PJ Morton's "New Orleans Girl" music video, & Dee-1 "No Car Note". They have made their debut on Lifetime reality show "Bring It" & recently joined Lil Wayne in his Uproar halftime show for Monday night football. And NAACP March on Washington with DJ Mannie Fresh. The Golden Hearts believe in the PDC motto, "Make Your Passion A Profession" and are dedicated to training in all genres to accomplish their dreams. They are passionate about dance because it is a way to express their emotions when words can't do them justice. These teens are 13-19 years old. Join them and turn your passion into a profession.
